

NO KICK ON WINE AT WHITE HOUSE WEDDING

CEDRINO INJURED IN 200-MILE AUTO RACE

None of Our Business, Attitude of New York Women—Other W. C. T. U. Workers Excited Over "Intoxicant" at Nuptial Feast.

BRIDE-TO-BE CELEBRATES HER BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Longworth Recovers from Illness, Returns to His Duties in Congress—Vain Effort of "The Climbers" to Get Invitations to the Wedding.

The storm created by some temperance people over the suggestion that there will be wine served at the wedding breakfast of Miss Roosevelt doesn't seem to rattle people in this town.

The New York County organization seems to consider the matter of alcoholic or non-alcoholic refreshment at the nuptial feast nobody's business but Miss Alice's own. No matter how much the members may personally object they refuse to utter one word of criticism.

Mrs. A. C. Allen, Secretary, doesn't see why her temperance society should make a fuss just because "the poor girl" happens to be the President's daughter.

"Miss Roosevelt can serve all the wine she wishes at her wedding breakfast without our interference," she said. "It is not our party. The New York County Chapter of the W. C. T. U. would not think of addressing a girl on so personal a matter just because she happens to be the President's daughter."

"I think the poor girl has already suffered too much from publicity and curiosity. At least she should be sheltered by any protest from our branch of the society."

"Whether she has wine or not is none of our business."

This is the official statement of the local chapter's attitude.

MISS ROOSEVELT CELEBRATES HER BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union, through its branches all over the country, is pouring a flood of protest into the White House against the use of wine at the wedding breakfast of Alice Roosevelt.

The local branch of the Union has not joined in this request to have only aqua pura and beverages of non-alcoholic brew served at the wedding breakfast, taking the stand that it would be efficacious and impertinent to take the initiative.

But the other branches, from Quogue, L. I. to San Diego, Cal., are sending out explanatory protests by the hundreds. They are following the lead of Congressman Wheeler, the only representative from Ohio, who refused to sign in for a loving cup that the State delegation sent as its wedding gift to Miss Roosevelt.

Mr. Wheeler made a prophetic hit with the ladies' temperance organization, and few of the letters that the secretaries of the President are wading through fail to commend his action in regarding the use of loving cups and nuptial bowls.

Congressman Longworth was inefficiently recognized to-day to take a short drive and resume his seat in Congress. He was congratulated on all sides on his recovery. His doctor said this afternoon he would be well enough to look in on the festive roll around at the White House, where the President and Mrs. Roosevelt are to give a dinner to a party of girls in honor of Miss Alice Roosevelt's twenty-second birthday.

Bully Imparting Presents.

Except for a visit to the Longworth home to see Mr. Longworth, Miss Roosevelt spent Sunday at home very quietly, opening the wedding presents that arrived in an endless stream.

Her literary to-day called for a trip to the dancing academy and a round of light shopping.

The lady's annual among that variety of social vegetation which may be designated under the general family name of "climbers" have taken a new tack in their efforts to secure bids to the marriage. When the announcement came out that the list of guests would be closely pared, there was no in the very core of these society aspirants.
